THURSDAY, October 19, 1865. Arrival and Departure of Mails. DEPART.

....12:00 M THE GAZETTE.

The campaign being over, we expect hereafter to devote more space to the publication of news and miscellaneous articles. During the winter we shall aim to make the Gazette not only a good political journal, but also a good news and family paper.

In connection with this statement we wish to urge upon our friends the necessity of coming forward and paying up promptly. It is the habit of our subscribers to pay their subscription and 30 behind Golden. during the Spring and Fall, and we request those who failed to pay last Spring, to do so before the winter sets in. Our expenses are materially increased by the sudden rise in paper tion. In Liberty and Clearcreek town and by preparations for the winter ships, we learn that the votes of deseason. Again we urge our friends to call and settle.
